

Accessible Home

To help with life's changing needs, use this checklist to determine the products that are right for you and your accessible home

CHECKLIST

What you may need

Safer Bathing

Update your bathroom with just a few of these small stylish changes to help reduce the chance of accidents and make your bathroom more safe.

- Grab Bars and Rails
- Handheld Showerheads
- Non-Slip Bath Mats
- Adhesive Grip Strips
- Chair-Height Toilet

- Raised Toilet Seat
- Bath Transfer Seat
- Shower Seat
- Walk-In Bath Tub
- Barrier-Free Showers

Slip and Fall Safety

With a few steps, you can go to great lengths to help reduce slipping in main traffic areas, stairs and along your flooring surfaces.

- Non-Skid Tread Tape
- Rug Tape
- Handrails and Hardware
- Electric Cord Management
- Step Stools

- Transition Strips
- Surge Protectors

Grip and Reach Assistance

Performing daily tasks is often a chore, particularly if you have difficulty grabbing and reaching for things. The following products offer a few ways to help make performing household tasks easier.

- Lever-Style Door Handles
- Lever-Style Faucets
- Drawer-Style Dishwasher
- Front-Loading Washer and Dryer
- Retrofit Shelf Pull-Outs and Pull-Downs
- Rocker-Panel Switches and Dimmers

- "D"-Style Cabinet Pulls
- Automated Operation or One-Touch Faucets
- Wall Oven
- Front-Control Range
- Drawer Style Microwave

Mobility Improvements

We make navigating throughout your home easy by offering size and accessibility updates that accommodate your needs, all without sacrificing style.

- Roll-under Cabinetry
- Cabinetry with Pull-Out/Adjustable Drawers and Table Systems
- Interior/Exterior Doors 36-in. Wide or Greater
- Offset Hinges
- Wall-Mounted Sinks
- Ramps

Communication and Visual Assistance

Your home may become more challenging if the ability to hear and see begins to decrease. Products like these can help meet those challenges.

- Intercom
- Audio/Video Monitors
- Occupancy Sensors
- Night Lights
- Outdoor and Landscape Lighting

- Smart Door Locks
- Wireless Doorbell Chimes
- Lighted Switches
- Under Cabinet Lights

Fire and Burn Safety

By taking precautions and using products like these, you can help lower the risk of injury.

- Carbon Monoxide Detectors
- Smoke Detectors
- Induction Cooktops and Ranges

- Fire Extinguishers